Deborah "Debbie" Myers

SEP 1, 1962 - JUN 13, 2025

Deborah "Debbie" Myers, passed away on Friday, June 13, 2025, in St. Louis, Missouri at the age of 62.

Debbie was born on September 1, 1962 in St. Louis, Missouri, to the late Edward D Myers Jr and Joetta Myers.

Debbie is survived by her loving significant other, Glenn Cano; Children: Jennifer (Ryan), Christopher (Jill), Jacob and Anthony; Grandchildren: Trinity, Andrew, Ally, Madison, Maddy, Ella and Charlie.

Debbie was a loving sister to: Edward D Myers III (Christine) and Diane (Mike); Aunt to: Michael D Cook Jr, Zachary, Daniel (Lisa) Ryan (Katie) and Alex. Great Aunt to: Michael D Cook III and Delilah.

Debbie was a dearly loved niece, cousin, and incredible friend to many.

Debbie was a bright light who cherished every moment spent in the sun, on the water and spending time with friends and family. One of her favorite past times was teaming up with her sister, Diane, to annihilate everyone at family Pictionary.

She found her greatest joy at the beach, feeling the sand between her toes and the ocean breeze in her hair. Summers were her favorite time of year, a season that perfectly matched her warm and vibrant spirit. Whether she was hosting a gathering with friends, enjoying family cookouts or simply spending time outdoors, Debbie's love for life was contagious. She never missed an opportunity to laugh, connect and make others feel welcome. Her love for being social and creating happy memories will live on in the hearts of all who knew her.

So many memories to shared and they were all great. The first day we met, on our first day in high school, was typing class. The infamous Ms Runde had to split us up because we just couldn't stop talking.Going to Tower Grove park during spring fever and all of us commenting on how fast you tanned. You were our very own Malibu Barbie.We all had the best times whether near or far and always picked up where we left off. Each and everyone of us will miss having those moments of pure joy and laughter.I know you know how much love we have for you. How extremely missed you will be and how our memories will now have a touch sorrow.I wish you love and God's grace and speed as you continue your journey.Lisa
